A Pleasant Trip--

Last Thursday, it was our good fortune to visit the Railroad at the deep cut near Day's hollow, in the pleasant company of a number of ladies and gentlemen. Leaving Fayetteville at about 7 o'clock in the morning, we arrived at Brighton after a three hours and a half ride, where the visitors were cordially welcomed in a greeting speech, by Capt. R. U. C. Bagley. After a short delay, all wended their way to the festive work, passing a heavy hill where a large number of workmen were employed, and where the subterranean fire, of which we made mention several weeks since in these columns, is still burning, under twenty feet of dirt. Although fully two months have elapsed since the fire was covered up, yet, on cloudy days, and early in the morning, columns of smoke continue to issue from the ground. The festivity is a massive, strong, substantial piece of work, well elevated in the air; the timbers for the iron, we are told, being about sixty feet from the ground. Returning to Brighton, we found that Captain B. had, with that kind attention for which he is well known, prepared seats for the company in a pleasant spot, on the brow of a picturesque hill. Here dinner, for which we were indebted to the forethought of the ladies, was spread, and an hour passed very agreeably. After the repast, a visit to the cars, which were some distance farther up the Road, followed. Arriving there, the visitors, through the polite intervention of the Secretary of the Road, James R. Bright, Esq., were complimented with a ride of a mile or so and back, on the cars. The running was very smooth, the track seeming to be quite level, and a high rate of speed was attained. The deep cut, to which we have above referred, is a heavy piece of work, being quite long, and about forty feet deep. The walls seem to have been cut with almost as much precision though wrought in solid rock by a master workman. Just inside of its lower entrance bursts forth the noted Bagley spring, affording a bountiful supply of cool, limpid, excellent free-stone water.

About 2 o'clock the tourists wended their way homeward, and after a pleasant ride arrived safe, each, we believe, well pleased with the day's jaunt.

Good Selection--
We learn from the published proceedings, that at a convention of the Democracy of McNairy county, held on Monday, 6th inst., at Purdy, James F. McKinney, Esq., formerly of this place, was unanimously chosen as the Democratic candidate for Representative. Our West Tennessee friends are fortunate in their selection. Esq. McK., of whose election there is no doubt, will make them an able, efficient, attentive legislator.

Good Property for Sale--
Mr. W. M. McKinney, residing in the lower end of the county, in the neighborhood of Doon's Hill, will offer for sale his valuable farm containing 530 acres, to the highest bidder, on Friday, July 22d. Also, a fine lot of hogs, mules, horses, colts, growing corn, etc.--besides some likely negroes. For further particulars, the reader is referred to the advertisement in this paper.

Fourth of July--
In other towns we notice that preparations are being made for the celebration of the approaching Fourth of July in a suitable manner--but here, so far, the subject has not been agitated. Is it possible that our citizens will allow our Country's Anniversary to pass without even an attempt at a demonstration?

Still Coming--
New subscribers to the Observer continue to come in. Among them is a gentleman who has always voted in opposition to the Democratic party, but who will at the approaching election vote for Gov. Harris. We hope and trust that there are many more just such.

Brighton--

This is a pleasant, healthy locality, situated about ten miles from this place on the Railroad. Capt. Bagley has laid off the place in lots--a plot of which he will show to persons desiring to settle there.

Cotton--There is no demand from the trade, and the few transactions which have occurred during the week have been on manufacturers' orders. There is, therefore, no business doing to authorize quotations.

Tobacco--The transactions in Tobacco have been fair during the week, and at full prices. We quote:

Lugs--There is no demand from the trade, and the few transactions which have occurred during the week have been on manufacturers' orders. There is, therefore, no business doing to authorize quotations.

Provisions--The provision market has been quiet during the week. The receipts of beef have been light and the demand moderate. We quote shoulders at 7c, hams 9c, and clear sides 10c, from wagons. From store, packed, 1c advance is demanded.

Prime Lard from wagons commands 10c. Br. adustins--There is very little doing in flour, except in retail way. We hear of no offers for new flour.

No new wheat has been received in this market yet. Buyers are offering $1 per bushel for July delivery.

Corn is in good demand at 75c per bushel, purchasers furnishing a fair price. We quote: We quote Sugar at 6 1/2c for fair, and 7 1/2c for prime to choice, in hbls, and 4 1/2c advance on these quotations for barrel. Molasses at 42c per gallon in hbls; 45c at 1/2 bush.
